Add-on Package

Targeted Documentation and Analysis of Recipes – For Enhanced Production Quality

Recipes enrich the basic structure of a production process with specific values and parameters tailored to a particular product. Their systematic use enables transparent visualization, detailed analysis, and continuous optimization of production quality.

Your benefits:

- Standardization through the use and exchange of recipes
- Documentation of specific production processes
- Analysis of warning and limit value violations
- Early detection of unstable processes via LiveValue-Cache
- Integration of insights into new recipe versions
- Sustainable improvement of production quality
